

STUDENT/ADVISOR PARTICIPATION FORMS

Nevada HOSA

Covering all In-State Nevada HOSA Sponsored

INSTRUCTIONS

The Advisor Conduct & Student Permission/Medical Release Forms contained in this packet apply to all Nevada HOSA sponsored events.

During the year, Advisors are required to indicate their possession of the combined Student Permission/Medical Release Form by completing the Statement of Assurance form in this packet and sending a copy of it in prior to each state-sponsored event.

The following guidelines govern this process:

1. Each HOSA member is to complete and submit to their advisor the Permission/Medical Release Form contained in this packet which encompasses the Conduct Code Endorsement, Permissions to Attend Nevada HOSA Sponsored Activities, authorization to use pictures or student name in publications, Release of Claim for Damages and Emergency Medical Treatment Authorization.
2. Advisors do not have to submit the Student Permission/Medical Release Forms to Nevada HOSA, but must keep them in their possession and bring them with them to each in-state Nevada HOSA sponsored activity. Once a student has completed this form the same form can be used for the duration of the school year in which it is submitted. A new form must be collected at the start of the school year for returning students (i.e. the previous year's form cannot be used).
3. Each Advisor must submit the Advisor Conduct form before participating in their first Nevada HOSA sponsored event of the year. Once this form is submitted it is valid for the duration of the school year in which it is submitted. A new form must be submitted at the start of the next school year. Submit online at <https://trileadership.wufoo.com/forms/nevada-hosa-participation-forms/>.
4. Each Advisor must submit a separate Statement of Assurance Form at the designated deadline prior to each in-state Nevada HOSA sponsored event of the school year. This Statement indicates that the advisor has the Permission/Medical Release Form for each and every student who will be participating in that event and will bring those forms with them to the event. Submit online at <https://trileadership.wufoo.com/forms/nevada-hosa-participation-forms/>.

FOR ADVISORS

As leaders and teachers of young professionals, it is important that we prepare our students for the events to come. The intent of these forms is to protect both your students and yourself as well as Nevada HOSA.

Onsite Chaperoning During Nevada HOSA Sponsored Events

Having your students check in with you at least three times per day is vital when participating in HOSA-sponsored activities. As their advisor, you can help to eliminate frustrations on the part of your students. It also makes things run more smoothly for your chapter. If needed, check with experienced advisors for help – no one is perfect and knows everything, and it is important that you ask your students how things are going and about any challenges or frustrations they are experiencing. Again, be positive and supportive. Most challenges can be solved with patience, and by working through the situation. Asking your officers to help with chapter management can be a great support.

Let your students know of your whereabouts. Be sure that they are aware of your event assignments so that they can quickly locate you if a challenge arises. Have your students work together to help each other in case of conflicts and to remind each other of the times and locations for their activities. When you are assisting with an activity, have your students mark their programs as to where you will be located.

Ask them if they are having a good time. If possible, help them to have a better time. Remember, there is nothing like positive feedback by your group upon returning home.

Remind students to thank those who conduct their events. All event staff and judges are volunteers. If you plan to use parent chaperones, let your officers plan a special way to thank them at the conference.

Publicity

Your chapter and Nevada HOSA need all of the publicity we can get. Use participation in Nevada HOSA sponsored activities to generate some positive publicity. A news release for your chapter distributed to local and school press outlets is always a good idea.

Special Needs Students

Our office makes every attempt to accommodate special needs students at state events. If you contact us prior to any scheduled event, we can make the conference and competition as barrier free as possible.

Standards of Behavior

A concern at any student conference is the standard of conduct. HOSA is no exception. The state staff has worked hard to let the conference staff know how important their role is in making our conference a success, so the image students and advisors make during HOSA events is vital. Our members exhibiting a professional image to the conference staff, guests, and judges, are extremely important.

Visibility

Drop in and check on your students. Performing a "head count" from time to time is important, but be sure to physically see every student during the event. Ask questions about events and have a conversation with them so you can see how they are doing. With all of this, you will know that your students have been accounted for which helps prevent challenges.

Student Conduct

It is the responsibility of the local advisor to oversee the conduct of their students throughout the event. Advisors are responsible for ensuring that their students stay engaged, fully participate, and abide by the Student Code of Conduct for every event. For overnight trips, advisors are responsible for conducting curfew checks and ensuring that their students know of the requirement that they remain in their rooms throughout the night.

Meet challenges head-on in a positive manner! Do not let things get out of hand – do your part, tactfully. Ask other advisors for ideas if you are not sure how to handle minor situations.

DISCIPLINE

The following are general consequences that the state staff and student's chapter advisor/chaperone may choose to follow:

1. Use or Possession of Drugs/Alcohol

Advisor: a) Student sent home. A student who is present when drugs/alcohol are being used is subject to the same consequence.

State Staff: a) Parent and school notified.
b) Student sent home and disqualified from event and possibly future events.

ADVISOR CONDUCT

HOSA’s programs offer training to those students who have career objectives in the fields of healthcare. Individual conduct and appearance is a portion of this training. Attendance at any Nevada HOSA sponsored conference or activity is a privilege. Setting a good example is a goal of teaching and students participating in Nevada HOSA conferences and activities are impressionable; therefore a code of conduct is set for advisors. By signing this agreement, the advisor also agrees to the tenants of the Participant Code of Conduct and the Dress Code. Violations of these practices and procedures, as established, will be referred to the Executive Director, the Nevada HOSA Board and the advisor's school administrator.

1. Advisors will be held accountable for communicating the responsible behavior, conduct, and attire of all students, chaperones, and guests from their chapter. The codes govern the behavior of advisors as well as students.
2. As stated in the Participant Code of Conduct, item seven, advisors will serve as role models and ensure that all of their participants attend and actively engage in all sessions at conferences in which they attend.
3. Advisors are held responsible for their students’ actions. An advisor must take the appropriate disciplinary steps as defined in the Participant Code of Conduct and/or as directed by the Board of Trustees or the Conference Conduct Committee.
4. When advisors are assigned job duties during activities, it is the responsibility of that advisor to promptly carry out those duties.
5. Advisors are responsible for being available to their students and other advisors 24 hours per day. This responsibility begins from the time parents/guardians leave students with the advisor until the time they pick them up after the activity.
6. Advisors are responsible for knowing the whereabouts of all of their students at all times. Each advisor must have with them at all activities and conferences:
 - Each participant's signed Participant Code of Conduct;
 - Each participant's signed Emergency Medical Treatment Authorization Form; and
 - A list of each student's names, parent/guardians names, and phone number.
7. Each advisor and supervising adult must attend designated advisor meetings at conferences.
8. Advisors must report any conduct violations to a current member of the Nevada HOSA State Staff.
9. All judges' decisions are final. Concerns about event management and/or judging may be communicated through writing to the State Staff no later than one month from the last date of the event.
10. Advisors MUST abide by the policy of the Executive Director and State Director before conducting out-of-state travel for the National Leadership Conference (NLC).

By signing the Nevada HOSA Advisor Code of Conduct, the advisor agrees to abide by the rules set forth in this document. Additionally, the advisor agrees to abide by the judgment set down by the Nevada HOSA State Staff in any disciplinary action. Advisors may appeal a ruling with a letter to the State Staff giving an explanation of circumstance that may have been outside of the advisors control, within one month after the ruling. In addition to the consequences stated in the Participant Code of Conduct, any violation of these codes will also result in the advisor to student ratio being reduced for a period of time to be designated. This signed form is required in order to attend all recognized Nevada HOSA activities.

- The responsibility for the safety of the delegates from this chapter rests with people signing this Statement of Assurance.
- I will participate in all general sessions during the conference and fulfill my assigned responsibilities during the conference.
